Announcement of Alternative Way for Participating in the 11th ICERD -Web-Participation-

Thank you very much for participating in the 11th ICERD.

It is grateful to inform you that the 11th ICERD, International Conference on Environmental and Rural Development will be held as scheduled.

According to Cambodian Ministry of Health, so far there was one case of epidemic happened in Cambodia. After consultation with Public Health Specialists as well as ICERD Organizing Committee Members, we have decided that regardless of nationality, every participant traveling from or through Wuhan and surrounding areas in mainland of China less than 15 days prior to the 11th ICERD is advised not to attend the conference.

In the venue of the 11th ICERD, hand sanitizer is set for preventing the spread of novel coronavirus. All participants are required to use hand sanitizer before entering the venue. Also, an infrared temperature camera is prepared at the venue to observe participants' temperature. Any individuals recording a temperature of 38 degrees Celsius or higher, will not be allowed to enter the venue.

Web-Participation

The Organizing Committee of the 11th ICERD decided to set a Web-Participation only for the 11th ICERD, especially for the participants who are willing to join but has to cancel or still hesitate due to the coronavirus epidemic.

Benefits for Web-Participation

1. Posters are uploaded on the special section on ISERD website as well as printed and displayed in the venue for the poster presentation
2. Based on their poster presentations, full manuscripts as well as abstracts, web-participants are eligible to be selected as awardees for various ISERD Awards
3. The manuscripts from the Web-Participants are contributable to the IJERD, International Journal of Environmental and Rural Development, Vol. 11

How to make Web-Participation

1. Web-Participation Form must be submitted to the organizing committee by 27th February 2020
2. Poster of PDF must be submitted to the organizing committee by 27th February 2020

We are looking forward to seeing your research outcomes on ISERD Web as well.
